The Shairzai Family

During the Russian occupation of Afghanistan one of the most famous and ferocious warriors was Haji Abdul Latif. Haji Abdul Latif was from the Qandahar province and primarily fought there. Because of his tenacity in Battle he was nicknamed the "Lion of Qandahar". Lion in the native language (Pashtun) is Shar. Haji Abdul Latif before long was only referred as "Haji Shar". Haji Shar had six sons. The son's became known as "Shairzai" (son of the lion). The oldest, Gul Agha Shairzai, fought for his father as a commander in the mujahedin. Gul Agha Shairzia led the way in the war against terrorism with the United States forces, driving the Taliban and Al-Queda out of Qandahar Province. For his bravery, courage and leadership he was appointed the Governor of Qandahar Province, Afghanistan. Since that time Governor Shairzai has worked closely with the United States Government and the United States Military Forces demonstrating great commitment and loyalty to joint interests. He has demonstrated through his leadership the desire to improve the quality of life and economic stability of Afghanistan.

The second oldest son, Mohd Rafiq Shairzai (Pacha), also fought with his father and the mujahedin. He has been instrumental in the intelligence community throughout the war on terrorism. For his loyalty, commitment and experience he was appointed the Chief of Intelligence of Qandahar Province, Afghanistan and promoted to Major General.

The third oldest son, Abdul Raziq Shairzai, also fought for his father and the mujahedin. He currently holds the rank of Major General overseeing security for all of Qandahar Province including Qandahar Airport. He has been chosen to represent the family and Qandahar Province as envoy to the United States. He has retained the Four Horsemen to manage all business transactions globally to ensure cohesion during the rebuilding of Qandahar Province. These three brothers make up one of the strongest alliances and influential families in Afghanistan today.
